STARTLED BY A LUNATIC

MADE HIS APPEARANCE IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE CHAMBER.

ADDRESSED THE VICE PRESIDENT

Capitol Police Finally Summoned and the Insane Man Was Taken Before Commission to Pass on Sanity.

Washington, April 24.—A voice from the men's public gallery, addressed to "Mr. Fairbanks and gentlemen of this house," startled the senate yesterday during the consideration of the naval appropriation bill.

A sandy complexioned man of about 30 years, unshaven, but not otherwise unclean, was trying to get the vice president's attention.

He succeeded, as well as attracting the gaze of everybody on the floor and in the galleries, and shouted: "I proclaim myself the head of this house."

That was as far as he was permitted to go. By that time members of the capitol police force had reached his side, and he was taken out.

At the office of the captain of police the man said his name was George Washington, and that if he were not permitted to keep that name he would go to Ireland and call himself Daniel O'Connell.

From his talk it was evident that he was devoid of reasoning power, and had been drinking in addition. He declared that he had made a speech, proclaiming himself "the head of the senate, the head of the nation, the owner of everything in it, everything that crawls or walks upon the ground and swims in the seas."

He rambled on through a long harangue, which he had not completed when taken from the capitol for appearance before the District lunacy commission.

THREE SUSPECTS ARRESTED

They Are Charged With an Attempted Train Hold-Up.

Butte, Mont., April 24.—Three men were arrested early today and are in jail here for complicity in the attempted holdup of the westbound North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific railway near Welsh's Spur, twelve miles east of Butte, last night.

The accused are Rudolph Wenk, Paul Fleinius and Al Teasdale.

Wenk and Fleinius, who are Germans, admitted having flagged the train, claiming, however, to have been forced to act by two armed and masked desperadoes, who, when the train came to a halt, lost courage and made a quick get-away.

THREE WERE CREMATED

Another Fatally Burned by Blazing Building Collapsing.

Corry, Pa., April 24.—David Wetherbee, aged 75, his wife, aged 68, and their daughter were cremated, and Albert Lemm, the daughter's husband, was probably fatally burned early today by a fire that destroyed their home at Centerville.

Mrs. Lemm, after rescuing her husband, returned to the burning building for her parents, when the house collapsed.

THE "D. A. R." VACANCIES

Women From Kansas and Iowa Elected to Fill Them.

Washington, April 24.—It is announced today that Mrs. W. E. Stanley, of Kansas, and Mrs. D. W. Bushnell, of Iowa, were the successful candidates to fill vacancies of vice president in the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The election was held yesterday and the result announced this morning.

Entertained the Adagio.

Mrs. Matt McEniry was hostess to the Adagio club yesterday. The club prize, a picture, went to Miss Etta Furley, and the guest prize, a handkerchief, to Miss Anna Lionberger, of Pilot Grove. Ice cream, cake and minis were served. The game of 500 furnished the amusement.

Fr. Graham's Estate Sued.

Attorneys Moran, of Kansas City, and Lynch, of Sedalia, were here Monday and Tuesday, writes Roy Morris in the Houstonian, taking depositions of witnesses in the case of Mrs. Ellen Cox, of McAllister Springs, who is suing the estate of the late Fr. Graham for some six hundred odd dollars, back pay for services as caretaker.

Were Licensed to Wed.

A marriage license was issued this forenoon to Samuel H. Miller and Gussie Claycomb, both of Hughesville.

A license was issued late yesterday to L. L. Brundage and Brookie B. Ransom, both of this city.

DUC DE CHAULNEZ DEAD

MARRIED TO MISS THEODORA SHONTS IN NEW YORK IN FEBRUARY LAST.

WAS FOUND DEAD IN BED IN PARIS

Wife Made the Discovery—Wedding Was One of the Swell Society Events in Gotham of Recent Years.

New York, April 24.—A cable dispatch to Theodore P. Shonts, received today, announced the sudden death in Paris of his son-in-law, Duc de Chaulne.

The Duc and Miss Theodora Shonts were married in New York city recently and were on their wedding trip.

A Paris dispatch to the Associated Press says:

Duc de Chaulne, who in February last was married to Miss Theodora Shonts, was found dead in bed at his apartments at Hotel Langham.

The dead body was found by his wife.

Death was due to embolism, or an obstruction of an artery.

THE DRAG NET DID WELL

And in Consequence There Were Many Victims in Court.

Lela Keeton, Susie Payne and Tom Umbles, negro late hour victims, were rounded up by the police last night and lodged in jail, pending trial this morning. The negroes were fined $5 each, while the case of Umbles was continued until tomorrow.

Clarence Reed, whose wife is an inmate of an immoral resort, was also included in the list of those arrested, and was fined $5, while John Warner, another drunk, was listed at $5, with a $15 fine imposed on Geo. Murphy. Murphy was given a stay to leave town.

Nine hoboes comprised the list of arrests made by the constabulary yesterday, three of the cases being disposed of in Judge Rickman's court, each receiving a seven days' jail sentence, while Judge Clark imposed a similar sentence on three other victims, and Judge Leaming administered a similar dose on the remaining three.

Judge Clark issued a state warrant today for Clarence Reed for disturbing the peace of his wife.

INCENDIARIES WERE FOILED

Tried to Burn Big Manufacturing Plant.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 24.—It was learned today that a desperate attempt was made Wednesday night last to destroy the big Allis Chalmers machinery plant at West Allis, a suburb of this city. Incendiaries distributed a dozen one gallon cans of gasoline throughout the building and then set fire to the plant. All that saved it from heavy loss was the automatic sprinkler equipment, which extinguished the flames before they had gained much headway.

A HOOSIER MAY PRESIDE

As Temporary Chairman Republican National Convention.

Washington, April 24.—Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, is spoken of for the temporary chairmanship of the republican national convention in Chicago.

SEDALIAN GETS A LEASE

GEORGE F. OLENDORF AT HEAD OF A THEATER IN JEFFERSON CITY.

RICHARD ASEL BE LOCAL MANAGER

Mr. Olendorf Will Give First-Class Shows—In Klaw & Erlanger Circuit Again—What the Democrat Has to Say.

George Olendorf, the well known theatrical magnate, last night closed a deal whereby he becomes the lessee of the Jefferson theater for the next five years, says the Jefferson City Democrat.

The terms of the lease are not given out, but as both the Jefferson Theater Co. and Mr. Olendorf are satisfied there is no doubt as to the consummation of the deal.

The Jefferson Theater Co. was represented by F. X. Campbell, who has been business manager for the company since Edson Burch resigned.

Richard Asel, the present manager, will be local manager for Mr. Olendorf.

Mr. Olendorf was the first person to operate the Jefferson theater, and did it most successfully in connection with L. M. Crawford, with whom he was associated at that time. W. J. Edwards was the local manager.

Mr. Olendorf is the western representative for Klaw & Erlanger, who are the largest theatrical agents in the world and control what is known as the theatrical trust. With these connections, there is no doubt that Jefferson City will get the class of shows she deserves and appreciates.

Mr. Olendorf said to the Democrat: "It will be remembered that when we had control of the Jefferson we gave the capital city the best shows that were on the road, and we are going to do so again."

"Jefferson City is a good show town and turns out to good plays and there is no use for us giving it bad shows when we can make money on the good ones."

"We are glad to get back in the city and will do our best to please."

Mr. Olendorf also has the ardor that is now under construction here. W. J. Edwards will be the manager for the summer theater.

PLAY AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

"The Return of the Persephone, the Goddess of Spring."

The Philomethan society of the High school will present a play, "The Return of Persephone, the Goddess of Spring," at the High school auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight, the program being as follows:

1. The Story of Persephone.—Rosemary Burrows.
2. The Welcome to Persephone.—Orchestra.
3. The Coming of the Daffodils.—Song—The Daffodils.
4. Chorus—Spring Song. Pinsuti; Joys of Spring, Geibel.
5. The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring.—Song—My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose.
6. Daisy Stars in the Shadow Grass.—Song—Daisies.
7. In the Merry Month of May.—Song—Welcome, Sweet Spring Time.
8. The Maypole.—Orchestra.

A TORNADO IN THE SOUTH

Three Persons Are Reported Killed in Mississippi.

Memphis, Tenn., April 24.—A tornado swept Walls, Miss., early this morning.

Three persons are reported killed, several injured and many buildings destroyed.

New Orleans, La., April 24.—A tornado swept across Rapides, Rapides county, today. The damage is reported heavy.

Not the Grocer's Wife.

The Mrs. Robert Ramsey who played the wedding march at the Chautauk-Peterson wedding Wednesday was not the wife of the South Ohio avenue grocer of that name.

Will Exchange Pulpits.

The congregation of the East Broadway Christian church will worship with the First Christian church Sunday morning, April 26, at 11 a. m., and their pastor, Elder J. J. Setliff, will preach the sermon.

At the evening service of the same day the congregation of the M. E. church, South, will worship with the congregation of the First Christian church, their pastor, Rev. J. F. Caskey, preaching the sermon.

What it Cost Mr. Perry.

A. J. Perry today filed with Recorder Morey his expense account for conducting his recent campaign for alderman in the Fourth ward, he having expended $27.50.

LOVE, WED, PART IN A DAY

WRIGHT COUNTY FARMER PAYS "HEART BROKER" $10 FOR PRIZE PACKAGE.

TOOK ONE LOOK, THEN BID GOOD-BY

Made-to-Order Bride Now Seeks Half His Wealth as Balm for Wounded Affections—Romance of the Ozarks.

Springfield, Mo., April 24.—Wooden, wedded and parted in a single day tells the story of the romantic marriage of Mrs. Mary Pierce to George Reiser, a wealthy German farmer, who lives near Mansfield, in Wright county.

Last Saturday Farmer Reiser came to Springfield in search of a wife. He drifted into an employment agency, and the proprietor of the place told Reiser he could provide him with a wife for $10.

Mrs. Pierce had asked the employment agent to find her a husband. When Reiser appeared on the scene, Mrs. Pierce, who obtained a divorce from her first husband last September, was notified by telephone.

She called at the employment office, and after an hour's conversation with Reiser, in which it was agreed that Mrs. Pierce should have the privilege of taking her four children to Reiser's home, the couple were married in the employment office.

An hour later Reiser told his bride that he was busy with his spring plowing and must hurry home. He said he would go home and have the place prepared for her reception. She has heard nothing from him since, and today she took legal steps to obtain half her husband's property.

Reiser is a widower, and is the father of three or four grown sons. The bride of five days believes that the sons have objected to their father's marriage at the age of 62, and that they have turned him against her.

THE DELMAR HOTEL SOLD

E. Rosenthal, of Chicago, Sells it to Ira O. McDaniel.

Col. James Story last evening sold the Delmar hotel, Main and Lamine streets, and its furnishings, for E. Rosenthal, of Chicago, to Ira O. McDaniel, of this city, the consideration being $2,000.

The deal has been pending for several days but not until last evening was it consummated.

Mr. Daniel has been conducting the hotel on a lease for several months past, and now that he is the owner of the property a number of improvements will be made in the not distant future.

NO MORE POLITICS FOR HER

Young Woman Refuses to Run Again for County Office.

Montgomery, Mo., April 24.—Mrs. Gertrude Barny, who was elected to the office of collector and was refused a commission on the ground that she was a woman and therefore not a qualified voter in this state, has decided not to have anything to do with the special election here today to fill the vacancy.

It was the intention to run a masculine candidate in her name and let her be his clerk, if elected, but the young woman will not consent. She is sick of the game of politics. Three democratic candidates were put on the ticket last afternoon.

WAS ANOTHER TRIUMPH

ANNUAL CONCERT OF SEDALIA'S GREAT ORGANIZATION, LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB.

MR. MILES WAS GIVEN A RECEPTION

Former Sedalian Added Much to the Success of the Splendid Concert—Large Audience Evincing Much Appreciation.

The annual concert of the Ladies' Musical club, which is invariably looked forward to with the keenest anticipation by all in Sedalia and always listened to with delight by every one fortunate enough to be present, was given at the Sedalia theater last night.

As is always the case when this organization favors the public with one of its artistic entertainments, a large and cultured audience greeted it, not one of whom but was again, as in former years, enraptured with the beautiful voices that so charmingly rendered each number of the carefully selected program.

No fairer scene was ever presented to any audience than was disclosed when the stage curtain was raised, revealing the members of the club all gowned in shimmering white, grouped in three semi-circles, one above the other, ready for the word that would cause them to fill the house with the rare harmonies that they alone can produce. The club was greeted with applause, which grew in volume as Mrs. W. D. Steele, founder and director, entered from the side and took her place, ready to lead it into new realms of ever-increasing triumph.

Then, and throughout the entire evening, Sedalia's pride in this great organization was evinced at every opportunity, the applause becoming rapturous when some particularly charming number was given.

It would be impossible to describe each number rendered without repetition, as the blending of voices, the perfect conception as to theme, made each selection a gem. The soloists, all in good voice, were a credit to themselves, the club and their able director.

"The Garden of Flowers," introducing all the favorites in solos, quartettes and duets, with the club accompanying in chorus, was a beautiful and fitting finale to this altogether entertaining and classical concert.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the popular leader, Mrs. W. D. Steele, and her untiring efforts which have resulted in the making of this wonderful organization and which promise to keep it together to further add to the delight of all those who love the best and sweetest as rendered by voices trained and directed to perfect accord and harmony.

Mr. Gwilym Miles was the soloist of the evening, and the musical club is to be congratulated on bringing to Sedalia this talented artist. Mr. Miles' first number, the famous prologue from I. Pagliacci, brought out all the possibilities of his wonderful voice and musical nature. His great compass, dramatic ability and beautiful shading were all in evidence. As an encore he sang, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

The second number was a group of choice songs by Strauss, Wolf, Kuhn and Schumann. The first two were sung in the original. The famous "Two Grenadiers" was sung with all the dramatic and patriotic spirit the song demands. As an encore, Hammond's "Recompense" was given.

The third group was indeed a rare treat. Handel's "Where'er You Walk," sung in that broad style which the author demands. "Mother o' Mine," by Tournes, followed, full of deep, tender feeling. Then came "Molly Malone," the charming old Irish ballad, and last and greatest of all his singing was that of "Danny Deever." Kipling's poem set to music by Walter Damrosch. In this song Mr. Miles completely carried away his audience, and he told the tragic story in a way never to be forgotten. As encores to this he sang Tosti's "Goodbye," and Rabyn's "You."

Mr. Miles was delighted with the brilliant reception accorded him. He was accompanied in all of his songs by Miss Ruby Pratt, of St. Louis, whose work was most artistic.

Mr. Miles was enthusiastic in his praise of the singing of the Ladies' Musical club and its beautiful work and voices.

The following is the program in detail, with the exception of those encores that were so gracefully given:

Program.

1. (a) Trust in the Lord (Largo). Handel
(b) In Maytime Oley Speaks
The Ladies' Musical Club.
2. Prologue, from "Pagliacci". Leoncavallo
Mr. Gwilym Miles.
3. (a) Sweetly, Sweetly, Sang the Bird Anton Rubenstein
(b) The Angel Anton Rubenstein
Ladies' Musical Club.
4. (a) Zueignung Strauss
(b) Verborgenheit Wolf
(c) My Native Land Kaun

SUNDAY BARS FAVORED

A GOOD SIZED TOWN IN WISCONSIN TAKES THIS PECULIAR POSITION.

DECLARES AGAINST THE STATE LAW

The Prohibition Wave That Is Sweeping Over the Country Has Had No Effect on the People of Kenosha.

Kenosha, Wis., April 24.—The prohibition wave that is sweeping over the country has had no effect in Kenosha. The old city council at its last meeting, by unanimous vote, decided against enforcement of the state laws in regard to Sunday closing.

The decision in defiance to the law of the state has caused something of a sensation among law and order societies, and it is expected that a general crusade for closing saloons on Sunday will result.

The action was taken in response to a petition signed by nearly 900 taxpayers, which asked the common council to order the police department to close the saloons on Sunday. In its report the council committee said:

"Your committee is satisfied that enforcement of Sunday law can be accomplished only when supported by strong, healthy general public sentiment."

"Recent actions in Kenosha would seem to indicate to all fair-minded men that public sentiment at this time will not support a rigid enforcement of the Sunday law, and that sentiment of the people would be an indication to sanction the quiet, orderly Sunday saloon."

RESULTED IN A HUNG JURY

Virgil Turner on Trial for Selling Liquor Illegally.

The case of the state against Virgil Turner, of Centralia, charged with illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, was tried before a jury in the court of Justice J. S. Bicknell in Columbia Wednesday afternoon, says the Columbia Herald. The result was a failure of the jury to agree. Five of the jurors were for conviction and one for acquittal.

Turner was charged with selling liquor in Columbia without a license. The sale was charged to have been made before the local option law took effect, and through orders taken by a negro representative of Turner in Columbia. The fine, if Turner had been convicted, would have been not less than $40 nor more than $200. The trial lasted all the afternoon.

The case will come up again Monday morning.

OFFICER AVERTS A WRECK

Near Tulsa, Ok., an Obstruction Was Placed on the Frisco Tracks.

Tulsa, Ok., April 24.—A railroad wreck was averted by G. W. Hanna, deputy United States marshal, near here yesterday.

Hanna was crossing the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad in a buggy at a point two miles east of the city when he saw a heavy obstruction on the track. An investigation showed the obstruction to be a bridge spike to which a fishplate had been attached.

The obstruction would have sent a train into the ditch. Hanna removed the obstruction before a westbound passenger train passed. Officers are working on the case.

WOMAN SEEKS HUSBAND

TELLS THE POLICE THAT HE ASSISTED IN WASHING THE DISHES.

THEN LEFT HOME WITH HER $1200

Woman of Crystal City, Mo., Goes to St. Louis in Quest of the Man Who Deserted Her Only a Few Days Ago.

St. Louis, Mo., April 23.—Mrs. Lizzie Mays Cook, 63 years old, a bride of four months, who came to St. Louis yesterday from Crystal City, Mo., to search for her husband, William M. Cook, 56 years old, appealed to the police for aid. Mrs. Cook believes her husband is visiting a friend in St. Louis, and after several hours trying to find the friend she appealed to the police.

Mrs. Cook, whose first husband died four years ago, stated that she was introduced to Cook by a neighbor. After their marriage Mrs. Cook says her husband persuaded her to sell her farm near Rush Tower, Mo., which she did, together with farm implements and her household goods.

"We moved to Crystal City," Mrs. Cook said, "and my husband never would allow me to do any work. He helped me with the dishes, cooking, cleaning, and everything else, always declaring that I must spend the balance of my days in ease."

"One day last week he went down to Scott county to look at a little home, and on last Saturday he returned and departed a few hours later with $1,200, all of our money. He told me that he was going to buy the home. I have not seen him since, and I believe he is visiting the half sister of the woman who brought us together. The woman's name is Kennedy, and she lives in St. Louis."

The police promised to aid Mrs. Cook in searching for her husband, who is described as being 5 feet 7 inches tall and having black hair and hazel eyes.

WOMAN KILLS SISTER-IN-LAW

Miss Victoria Hale Shot Mrs. Maud Hale in Callaway County.

Miss Victoria Hale shot and killed her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maud Hale, near Boydsville, Callaway county, early Thursday morning, says the Columbia Herald.

Miss Hale lives with her sister, Miss Viola Hale, and brother, Marion Hale, on the farm left by their mother, who died four years ago.

John Hale, husband of the deceased woman, was another brother of the Hales and they claimed a part of the estate.

A suit is now pending in Callaway county over a settlement of the estate, and this is thought to have been the cause of the trouble between the two women.

Mrs. Hale was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mareau, well known in Callaway county. She was about 25 years old.

WOMAN'S THROAT CUT

It Is Believed Mrs. White, of Americus, Attempted Suicide.

Americus, Kas., April 24.—When A. C. White, a grocery clerk went home yesterday morning about 10 o'clock he found his wife in bed with her throat cut.

She was dressed in her night clothes and covered with blood. Her windpipe is severed, and the attending physicians say there is no hope of recovery.

She was still able to show her husband where the razor was, and indications point to attempted suicide.

Big Brokerage Firm Failed.

New York, April 24.—The suspension of T. A. McIntyre & Co., brokers, members of the New York Stock Exchange and New York Cotton and Produce Exchanges, was announced today. The firm did a large business and had branches in Chicago and seven other eastern and southern cities.

THE MONEY SPENT FOR TAFT.

Who is paying the enormous expenditures of the Taft campaign, which has been in progress for more than a year? The Taft literary bureau has flooded the country with circulars, speeches and arguments, totaling many thousands of pages,
most all of which have been mailed to hundreds of thousands of people.
The cost of this bureau alone for paper, printing, postage and clerical hire must have long since passed the $100,000 mark. For months, too, newspaper offices have almost daily
been favored with bulletins by mail, announcing the triumphal progress of the Taft campaign. Expensive and extensive headquarters have been maintained in numerous cities.

It is given out that a half brother of Secretary Taft is paying the bills. He is not able to pay such sums as have openly been expended all over the east, west, north and south. No man ever lived who, from sentiment alone, would sacrifice such sums upon the mere chance of a presidential nomination.

Who is financing this expenditure, unmatched in the record of American politics? The Taft forces confessed more than a month ago to the expenditure of $750,000, but that sum does not measure one-half of the apparent expenditure already made,
with the larger calls yet to be met.

Money, money everywhere for Taft; money in volume that may well amaze the citizens of a country, but which can not buy them.
As the campaign progresses the spectacle of wealth poured forth for a nomination will challenge more and more attention, and everywhere
it will be asked: Why and by whom?

THROWS LIGHT ON HILL
EPISODE.

The request of Emperor William for a larger salary may seem absurd, in view of the fact that he is the largest land owner in Prussia and owns fifty-two castles and countryhouses. How is it possible for a man who receives also $4,500,000 a year, as king of Prussia, to feel poor? Yet, not long ago it was announced that his majesty would have his salary raised in order that he might meet his expenses.

The bill will be introduced in the Prussian diet, but the measure, it now appears, is to be postponed, possibly on account of the hard times.
If the policies of some of our railroad presidents were to be applied to the kaiser's case, his 'salary' would be reduced on the sound principle that in times of financial depression
the salary would be cut, first of all,
at the top.

One trouble in Germany, however, is that the kingdom of Prussia alone furnishes all the income of his majesty. The imperial reichstag provides for no imperial civil list and thus the other states in the German empire contribute nothing toward the maintenance of the kaiser. In recent years the cost of living has much increased in Germany and the pursue of royalty has felt the drain severely, notwithstanding the princely income that royalty already enjoyed.

In this situation may be discovered the root of the kaiser's fear, lest Dr. Hill, as American ambassador, would find existence in Berlin uncomfortable because it would be far beyond the limits of his private exchequer. When an emperor finds difficulty in making the bare ends meet on $4,500,000 a year, with fifty-two castles and country houses thrown in, not to mention the palaces at Berlin and Potsdam, for which he pays no rent, his anxiety over an American diplomat on a beggarly $18,000 a year, is perfectly comprehensible.

California charges the Mississippi valley with holding back an American merchant marine. It's mistaken; what the Mississippi valley objects to is ship subsidies.

Let us hope that within the next two or three days Helle and Anna will get beyond telegraph communication.

GIRL AVERTS THEATER PANIC

She Sings On, and the Audience Is in Blissful Ignorance.

Chester, Pa., April 24.—"The See-saw," a humorous sketch, was being presented in the Lighthouse hall, Eddystone, when a lamp exploded in the dressing room, setting fire to things.
Francis Murphy, the black-face comedian, placed his coat over the blazing lamp and threw it out of the window, while Hallie Pottle, a girl, was entertaining the audience of 400 people with a song, though she had detected the odor of smoke.

The audience knew nothing of the occurrence till after the fire and the performance was over.

TORNADO IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Thirty Houses Demolished in Town of Valley Springs.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 24.—Information is received in this city to the effect that a tornado struck Valley Springs, about twenty-five miles west of Sioux Falls, last evening and demolished about thirty buildings.

Nothing further has been heard, as communication has been cut off. Additional information cannot be secured before morning.

The Russian machinist at the city hospital with brain and typhoid fever is no better today. From the patient, Mrs. Nix, matron of the hospital, today learned that he has been in this country for two years and came to Sedalia in a freight car.

"A MACHINIST"

Written for the Democrat-Sentinel.

So said the brief newspaper paragraph—"dying alone among strangers." Someway I cannot forget this young Russian who is dying of brain fever away from home and native land, and it seems to me there is deep tragedy in his case. "Brain fever" doubtless caused by worry.

Possibly he was a "shop man" thrown out of work by the closing of the railroad shops, as are many others. He was a stranger, unused to the ways of this country; he left Russia full of health and hope, in the pride and joy of youth, coming to a land heralded as the "land of the free, the home of the brave." The shops closed indefinitely, he could get no work, he became discouraged, he was alone among strangers, and now he is dying in a charity hospital.

There are many others who are suffering on account of the closed shops,
men with families can get no work;
they came to Sedalia lured by the false hope of permanent employment;
they are able and willing, nay, anxious, to earn an honest living, but the shops are closed; there is nothing for them to do.

When Sedalians drained their pockets to give $200,000 to one railway company and $150,000 to another, they did not anticipate this result; they had a right to expect better things.

There are only a few who have profited by this vast outlay of money and they are the ones who managed the deals.

There is a crying wrong somewhere and the cry will eventually be heard;
the tears of despair and disappointment will not fall in vain, the harvest of many years of crime against the common people is nearly ready for reaping, and when greed and fraud are on the threshing floor the common people will hold the flails, and they will beat hard. Then the poor lonely Russian will be avenged.—

HOLD A GRAND CARNIVAL

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL RELAY
RACES OF UNIVERSITY
PENNSYLVANIA.

WILL BE HELD ON FRANKLIN FIELD

Are Forty-Nine Universities and Colleges That Have Entered Teams in the Tournament That Begins Tomorrow.

Philadelphia, April 24.—Incoming trains today are bringing to Philadelphia the advance guard of the great concourse of athletes who will participate in the fourteenth annual relay races of the University of Pennsylvania, to be held on Franklin Field
tomorrow.

Tomorrow's carnival gives promise of eclipsing all that have gone before,
and will be doubly important, inasmuch as it will enable followers of amateur athletics to gain a real line on the London Olympic possibilities of the college men.

To promise the best yet is saying much, for in the last ten years the relay races have been the scene of more hard, fast and high class racing than any other set of sports. All the best men of the last decade have been tried out on Franklin Field. All the great hurdlers from Kranzlein to Garrells, all the fast sprinters from Wefers and Duffy to Cartmell, scores of fast quarter-milers, the best milers, shot putters, high jumpers, etc., have all been seen in competition at these sports.

Teams or individual athletes will be on hand from all section of the country, and it is more than probable that some new marks will be reached.
This is almost to be looked for in the pole vault, the high jump and the discus.

Forty-nine universities and colleges have entered teams in tomorrow's great tournament. Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Cornell head the Eastern list, while Michigan, St. Louis university and Illinois State College will send runners from the west, and even Carlisle Indians will be represented. Pennsylvania has entered teams in all the races.

The three races to determine the college championship of America will be the features of the carnival. One race will be for a distance of a mile, each man to run a quarter mile. The second race will be a four-mile race; each man to run a mile, and the third race will be a two-mile event, each man to run a half mile.

A complete list of the colleges and universities entered is as follows:

Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Yale,
Michigan, Lehigh, Swarthmore,
Franklin and Marshall, Temple College, Muhlenberg College, Pennsylvania State College, Westminster, Wesleyan, Gettysburg, Washington and Lee, Fordham, Maryland Agricultural, Philadelphia College of Osteo-pathy, Delaware, St. John's, Hahnemann Medical, Carnegie, Haverford,
Art and Textile School, Jefferson Medical, Johns Hopkins, Medico-Chirurgical, New York University, Gallat-net, Dickinson, Lafayette, Dartmouth, Carlisle Indian School, Ohio State College, Rutgers, Washington and Jefferson, Columbia University,
St. Louis University, New York Law School, Brooklyn Law School, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, College of the City of New York, Pratt Institute, Western University of Pennsylvania, Villanova College, Massachusetts Institute of Technology,
Syracuse University, Illinois State College.

Michigan Hopes to Win.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 24.—Michigan athletes who will participate in the relay carnival at the University of Pennsylvania tomorrow were given a great send-off by their fellow students, and there is every confidence that the Ann Arbor boys will again romp home with the four-mile relay championship. The Wolverines are stronger than ever this year, and expect to show their eastern competitors a few new tricks in amateur athletics.

Michigan, who gave Pennsylvania such a hard run for first in the intercollegiate last spring, has for the last five years made a trip to the relay games, and as many times as she went east she returned west as champion in the four-mile relay event, as well as winning places in some of the other open events.

Students Mad, Won't Play.

San Francisco, April 24.—Because their captain, N. R. Gay, of Redlands, was ousted, the Stanford University crew has disbanded and refused to participate in the annual intercollegiate regatta with the Universities of California and Washington, scheduled for tomorrow.

Gay was ousted by the student affairs committee because of the part he had taken, with about 250 other men, in a parade on the night of March 12.

Field Meet in New State.

Norman, Okla., April 24.—Superintendents and principals of high schools in all sections of the state are the guests of the University of Oklahoma at a special educational meeting today, preceding the annual in-terscholastic field and track meet, to be held on the the university campus
tomorrow.

Athletic stars of at least a score of schools will compete for the trophies and medals offered by the university in the various events.

Texas Athletic Meet.

Dallas, Tex., April 24.—One of the best track and field meets ever held in the southwest will be that of the Central Texas Athletic association scheduled for this city tomorrow.

The association is the holder of one amateur world's record, that of the shot put, and it is possible that one or more others will be broken at tomorrow's meet. Fourteen events are included in the program and the pick of the amateur scholastic talent of Texas will be seen in action.

Middies' Athletic Schedule.

Annapolis, Md., April 24.—With an interclass meet tomorrow, the athletic season of the Naval Academy will be opened. This meet decides the winning class, and the winners of the athletic association medal, and gives the coach a line on the best material for the bigger events to follow. The schedule of dual meets for the middies has been arranged by Midshipman Henry F. D. Davis, manager, as follows:

May 2, Johns Hopkins University;
May 9, Columbia University, and May 16, Swarthmore College.

MILLERS OF WISCONSIN

in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 24.—Members of the Wisconsin Millers' association met in annual session at the Hotel Pfister today.

Following the business session, at which many important subjects will be considered, a banquet will be given this evening.

Women's Time of Power.

Everything in life—art, dress, modern rules of health and toilet inventions—tends toward the disappearance of the middle-aged woman. And she is no longer to be met with even in fiction. In up-to-date novels girls take a back seat, and the age of heroines goes well into the forties and fifties.
Balzac's "Femme de Trente Ans" seems a back number, and we read of lovely ladies with a lurid past who can give points and a beating to the average debutante. But every age had its ripened charmers, although they were not so plentiful as at the present period. Cleopatra was 40 when she enslaved Anthony; Diane de Poitiers and Mme. de Maintenon made their royal conquests in middle life, and Dejazet, the famous actress, was said to be gay and graceful at 70.

MANY LONDON WEDDINGS.

They Are to Be Solemnized Within the Next Two Weeks.

London, April 24.—Owing to the late Easter, more than the usual number of fashionable weddings are set for the last two weeks of April.
Nearly every church in the West End will be the scene of a brilliant marriage ceremony tomorrow, and there will be no less than 100 weddings in the highest social circles of London during the two weeks beginning tomorrow.

One of the most interesting weddings, to Americans, will be that of Mrs. Estelle Campbell, of New York, to Hamilton Hulce, son of Sir Edward Hulce.

HIS WIFE WAS "TOO FRESH"

Georgian Slew Her With an Ax While She Slept.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24.—"I killed my wife when she slept, and I feel that I ought to be hanged. I want to be tried without any delay and pay the penalty on the gallows. I have nothing to live for now. I killed my wife because she was too 'fresh.' We had been married only two weeks, and I soon learned that she was 'fresh.'"

So spoke James Richardson, who slew his wife with an ax when she was asleep. Richardson offers no explanation other than that his wife was "fresh," and that he had been planning to kill her since the night of their marriage. The murdered bride was only 18 years of age. Doctors say Richardson was crazed by something he learned about his wife.

PROPER JUDGMENT OF MANKIND.

Not by Weaknesses, but by Positive Good Achieved.

When we reflect that life itself, considered in its physical manifestations, is a process of oxidation; when we remember that the nerves of those who accomplish most for others are inevitably the most fretted by the corrosion of the chemical reactions which make possible the activities of physical existence; when we know that under the calm or phlegmatic exterior of men of great achievement there is the latent consciousness of the sum of all the suffering it has cost them, we cannot afford to judge them by their weaknesses. The man who, however blind, follows at his own expense, the impulses of his sense of duty, is to be judged by the positive good he has achieved—not by his negotiations. When we do consider these, when we judge the evil in the greatest and strongest nature by the consciousness of the evil in our own, we can better understand why after such self-judgment, Lincoln, aware of sharing and being acted on by all the forces of a period of delirium, should continually repeat: "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud?"—William Vincent Byars.

Should Go as Cook. "Understand," she said, "that I must have all I want, nothing to do, and nobody to boss me."

With compressed lips the man shook his head.

"My dear young lady," he said, "remember that this is a matrimonial agency, not an employment bureau."

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

AN ATTACK ON CHARITY

IT WAS MADE BY THE MOST REV. JOHN J. GLENNON, ARCH-BISHOP, ST. LOUIS.

HIS ADDRESS IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Giving of Libraries Which Teach Science Condemned—Bread and Not Lecture That Is Desired.

Chicago, April 24.—Organized charity was denounced as a mere bid for notoriety, and the average philanthropist was described as a modern Pharisee Wednesday night by the Most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis.

The prelate's arraignment was made in a lecture under the auspices of the House of Good Shepherd and before an audience of 2,500 persons. He said:

"It is a recognized fact that we are fast reaching a social crisis, with our millionaire on one hand and the pauper on the other. When that day comes the philanthropist, sitting in his upholstered chair, will not arise to the occasion. He will be told that it is not a lecture that is wanted, but that it is bread."

"There are today philanthropists—so-called—who believe that by giving the people libraries, that they might study out present day philosophy, they are accomplishing great good. And there are others who spend their time in social settlement work or lecturing on the child problem."

"Constantly they seek notoriety. Let them go on giving away their libraries and establishing their social settlements, but I want you to understand that philanthropy divorced from Christ is not charity."

"And I say, my friends, that the philosophy taught in your schools and universities today is just as brutal as it is repugnant. This philosophy of evolution, emanating from the brain of Darwin and Spencer, makes for brutality and retards progress. What is the use of struggling if there is nothing to be attained? Where is there an appearance of charity in this system? The strong succeed and the weak perish."

Disagree With Archbishop.

Chicago, April 24.—Leaders of organized charity did not take kindly yesterday to Rt. Rev. John J. Glennon's characterization of their activities. They did not cast any stones at the distinguished archbishop of St. Louis, but they all begged to dissent from his expressed view that the average philanthropist is a "Pharisee" and a "notoriety seeker."

Most of them were inclined to take a humble view of their work for the amelioration of human misery. They said that it by no means solves the problems imposed upon a defective economic system, but that it is the closest and most scientific method yet devised for meeting the conditions that, actually exist in crowded centers of population. They were also inclined to think that Archbishop Glennon's criticism tends to overlook the constructive side of their work, which has to do with the study of the remote causes of destitution.

"It is not easy to believe that one who has had Archbishop Glennon's opportunity to know the truth can have uttered the sentiments attributed to him," said Ernest B. Bicknell. "It is a fact that philanthropy cannot cure the ills of a faulty economic and social system, but it can alleviate them and help in pointing the way to a solution of some of the problems which our great cities have created."

"The archbishop seems to have accepted the view that if a philanthropic effort is not conducted under church auspices it is 'divorced from Christ.' The sweeping intimation that those engaged in philanthropic work are mere notoriety seekers is, of course, absurd, and it seems incredible that it could have been meant as quoted."

Herman C. Kingsley, superintendent of the Relief and Aid society, held a similar view.

"In addition to the actual work done in relieving the suffering of the destitute," he said, "it must not be forgotten that the agents of philanthropy are studying the problems presented. The results of those studies are beginning to manifest themselves in the public schools and in the small city parks, and indeed in every avenue of life."

He pointed to the great need for some organized relief bureau to which such a contingency as the late financial depression makes apparent.

Just So.

"Second thoughts," remarked the moralizer, "are always best."

"That's right," rejoined the demoralizer. "By the time you think them the chap who might have mopped up the sidewalk with you is several blocks away."

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hays, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put on sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable. A bottle of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

STIMULANTS BEFORE THE DUEL.

Frenchman Explains the Necessity for "Tanking Up."

The Frenchman was still pale and tremulous from his encounter with the rough.

"Did I not conduct myself well, hein?" he demanded.

"Fairly well. At the same time, for one who has fought four duels there was a certain pallor, a certain nervousness, that rather disappointed us."

The Frenchman looked mortified. Then he tapped significantly his little glass of fine champagne.

"But I had none of this," he said. "I was taken unprepared. I had not the time to—what you say—tank up."

"But you don't tank up for a duel?"

"Don't we? How little you know! Imagine it—the horror—the gray desolation of the dawn—the surgeon with his cold and glittering instruments—the witnesses cruelly searching you for the least sign of fear—and all this without tanking up. Voila, you are mad."

"No, no! Every Frenchman, before a duel, tanks up. A dueling field smells like an American bar. And it is astounding, with the thought of the duel before you, how much it takes to tank you. A pint, a litre sometimes, but steadies the nerve and clears the eye for the dread encounter."

GOOD, BUT FAIL TO WIN LOVE.

Why Man of Sterling Worth Is Seldom a Favorite of Women.

"Men who lack popularity among women are prone to say it is because we are attracted by the worst side of man's nature," remarked a matron who thinks. "The man who knows himself to be steady and loyal above small weaknesses is likely to become rooted in that belief when he sees men he knows to be below him in worth walk off with the matrimonial prizes. He thinks the woman who marries a wild chap does so because of the wildness. It's in spite of it. The chances are that the wild young man takes pains to make himself agreeable to women. He studies their likes and dislikes and always professes, whether he feels it or doesn't, profound interest in their health, their whims, the fit and fashion of their clothes and even the welfare of their pet dogs. Now, the man of sterling worth, as he likes to be called, will not condescend to court favor in those little ways. He is convinced he would make a good husband for any woman. He knows he is honorable, industrious and purposeful, and he thinks those qualities ought to suffice. But they don't. And the woman, repelled by his indifference to her in tiny things, turns to the microscopic devotion of the other, forgiving his wildness for the sake of his charm."

Bostonian Appreciation.

Dr. David Starr Jordan told a story on his last Brooklyn visit of John Muir leading a cultured Bostonian up the mountains that overlook the Yosemite valley. Muir said that he led the Bostonian along devious ways, so that the great, splendid valley would burst all on a sudden upon his astonished eyes.

Finally, at a turn of the road the vast, multi-colored panorama was spread out before them. The Bostonian's ejaculation was as sudden as Muir could desire; but it was this: "Well, now, how can we get across that damn gap?"

Another of Her Trials.

"Yes," sighed Mrs. Lapsing, "my husband takes a good deal of interest in politics. Almost every evening in the week he's at some ward cactus."—Chicago Tribune.

Sedalia Theater.

Mrs. Carter and the Auburn Theory.

Mrs. Leslie Carter has about come to the conclusion that her fiery shock of auburn hair is not altogether an unalloyed delight. This prized possession, which is as closely identified with her as the loas are with Trafalgar Square, or Grant's monument, it with Riverside Drive, has suddenly been discovered to have its disadvantages. It is not alone that the white horse is ever seen in close proximity to golden tresses, but, somehow, an unthinking world has come to believe that red hair and a fiery temper are synonymous. As this idea has gotten deeply rooted in the public mind, Mrs. Carter may as well become recognized to the fact that she will go to the end of the chapter heralded as a tempestuous Titan. While her intimate acquaintances well know this to be an evidence to the "contrary notwithstanding," as they say in law books.

Mrs. Carter does not resent the reflection cast by her tresses; she can't help it, and as it is a false mirage, she is resigned. It is untruth that hurts; shadows are unsubstantial things and are not worth bothering about. Those who know Mrs. Carter say that she is a woman of remarkable patience and poise; that she never flies off the handle and like a human aeronaut "goes up in the air" in consequence of trivialities. Her hair says she does, but her hair deceives. She is surcharged with dramatic temperament and so must necessarily have an outlet for her feelings.

The one thing that Mrs. Carter ever insists on, in a kindly way, from those about her, is gentleness and courtesy. In these particulars, she believes auburn hair indications—peppery qualities of mind and disposition. Almost every servant in her employ has been with her for several years, and one of these was her maid when a little girl on her father's farm near Lexington, Ky.

It would appear, then, that the auburn hair theory needs revising—at least, so far as Mrs. Leslie-Carter is concerned.

Mrs. Carter will appear in this city Monday, May 4.

Saturday and Sunday next Henry B. Harris will present at the Sedalia theater Charles Klein's play, "The Lion and the Mouse." The characters that Mr. Klein has introduced in his drama are said to be perfect types of the class of Americans one meets every day. There was no exaggeration employed in making them a part of a thrilling story of Mr. Klein's brilliant conception and John Burckett Ryder, the richest man in the world; Shirley Rossmore, who matches wits with him and wins; Jefferson Ryder, the self-willed son of the money kind and all the other characters are such as we all have become familiar with.

On this return engagement Henry B. Harris will send the same company here that was seen in Boston, New York and Chicago. The leading roles will be portrayed by Flora Juliet Bowley and Oliver Doud Byron.

DIES AS HE IS PROMOTED

Captain in Navy Is Stricken in a Remarkable Coincidence.

Washington, April 24.—Capt. York Noel, of the navy, fell a victim to a most unusual coincidence yesterday, having been stricken by death at the moment of his promotion.

A telegram received by the navy department from Rear Admiral Goodrich, commandant of the New York navy yard, announced that Capt. Noel died today.

Capt. Noel's promotion resulted from the promotion of Capt. W. S. Cowles to be rear admiral to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement yesterday of Rear Admiral S. W. Very.

PUSHING MOFFAT ROAD

THE FIRST RAILS EVER LAID OUT IN ROUTT COUNTY, COLORADO.

STEADY PROGRESS IS BEING MADE

Preparations Made for Establishing Camps Clear Along the Line to Steamboat Springs
at Once.

A number of Sedalians who have in past years visited Steamboat Springs, Col., during the summer months will read with interest the following from the last issue of the Southwest Pilot:

Today the rails on the Moffat road reach McCoy Siding, well within the borders of Routt county, the first rails ever laid in the county. Supplies will be brought up to that point for the contractors to continue the work, and on May 1 that will be the terminus for freight and passenger business instead of Yarmouy. This is two and a half miles from McCoy proper, and a saving of some twelve miles of rough road on the way to Steamboat Springs.

The track laying has broken all records, two miles a day having been laid at times.

The rails will continue on over the "shoo-fly" on Congor mesa up to the big Rock creek bridge, work on which will begin immediately. At the same time the heavy work over Congor mesa will be going on, and by the time it is completed the bridge will also be done and the rails will be continued to Toponas.

E. C. Phillips, who has the contract for five miles on Oak creek, was in last week, making arrangements for immediately establishing a camp near Oak creek. Twenty-five men and teams will be brought in at once.

William Crook came down as far as Sidney last week, where it is planned to at once establish other camps. Also the camp at Steamboat Springs will be established next month, and then dirt will be flying all along the line. While making no promise to that effect, the officials are now of the opinion that the entire line may be completed to Steamboat Springs as early as November.

GOLF AT YALE COLLEGE

First Match Will Be With Hartford Tomorrow.

New Haven, Conn., April 24.—Six team matches have been arranged for the Yale golfers, the first to take place tomorrow with the Hartford Golf club. The following Saturday will find the wearers of the blue at the Wee Burn Golf club. A match with the New Haven Country club over the latter's course is on for May 9, and on May 16 the collegians will try their luck at the Nassau Country club. Their only New Jersey scheduled appearance is at the Morris County Golf club May 23. The last match listed is with the Meridian Golf club on Jun 3. It will be seen by this that all the matches are away from home.

As all but two members of last year's championship team are available at present, the university golfers are able to enter upon their spring season with bright prospects. The two men who are unable to play because of baseball and track work are C. E. Van Vleck, jr., '09, and Robert Abbott, '08. The latter, who won the intercollegiate championship in 1905, is also prominent as a weight thrower, while Van Vleck is rated as one of the best on the ball team.

Taken as directed, it becomes the greatest curative agent for suffering humanity ever devised. It's Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the surest remedy. 35c, tea or tablets. W. E. Bard Drug Co.

GAMBLERS HID IN COFFINS

Twenty-Two Poker Players Caught and Fines Assessed.

South Norwalk, Conn., April 24.—So "dead" game were twenty-two players when a poker club was raided last evening that they sought security in caskets and coffin boxes. Others hid in an attic and when rounded up, all dust and cobwebs, they were a sorry sight.

Norwalk is a moral place. Gambling is tabooed. That a poker club existed under the guise of the Norwalk Social club was never suspected, but that is what the state police, prosecuting Attorney Leo Davis and the local police found when they swooped down upon the place at midnight.

Two dozen men were around the tables, but two jumped thirty feet from a window into a pile of ashes and escaped. Others broke through a wooden partition to P. B. Kavanaugh's undertaking place and hid in the coffin.

John H. Blake, the proprietor, was fined $100 and sent to jail for six months. The others were fined $25 or $50 each, and all paid up. Prosecutor Davis said he expected to find at least three members of the board of councilmen in the gambling house.

NEHEMGAR CLUB TONIGHT

Mrs. T. P. McCluney, of Warrensburg, to Read Paper, "The Jews."

On account of the annual concert of the Ladies' Musical club, this week's meeting of the Neheingar club was postponed until tonight.

The paper of the evening will be read by Mrs. T. P. McCluney, of Warrensburg, a former resident of this city, and one of the charter members of the Neheingar club.

For many years Mrs. McCluney has been esteemed one of the leaders of Central Missouri in educational, literary and club work, and her many friends will be pleased to greet her on this occasion.

At this meeting the club will decide the nature of its closing exercise for the year.

VILE PLAY WAS PUT ON

By Anarchists and Applauded by Emma Goldman's Adherents.

Chicago, April 24.—White slavery, ridicule of religion, wife beating and debasing scenes in dens of vice were presented in Yiddish at the Metropolitan opera house last night and cheered to the echo by anarchists, socialists and other radicals who assembled there to see it. The play was presented in defiance of protests and condemnation by leading orthodox and reformed Jewish citizens.

Dr. R. Miriam Yampolsky, the anarchist friend of Emma Goldman; William Nathanson and practically the entire Edelstadt group of anarchists were among those present, applauding vigorously every fling at religion and the commandments from the stage.

W. J. Bryan. Col. Bryan and Governor Sheldon, who was a company captain, are two of the principal beneficiaries.

I JURES "FUNNY BONE," DEAD

New Jersey Dancer Dies After Ball Room Accident.

Plainfield, N. J., April 24.—Abel B. Gaston, 18-year-old son of Dr. W. F. Gaston, is dead at his home, after lingering unconscious since Monday night, when he struck his elbow against a pillar while dancing. Young Gaston was attending a class reception and while dancing with Miss Margaret Lambert, struck the sharp corner of the pillar with his "funny bone."

He immediately complained of a numbness in his limbs. He was assisted to an ante-room, where he became unconscious. Four physicians diagnosed the trouble as meningitis.

Done and To Do.

"If I ever sees again a certain party what was in here the other night, me and him comes to blows," said the waiter in the New York restaurant. "He puts away 35 cents' worth, hands me half a dollar, and says: 'Keep the change.'"

"A 15-cent tip!" I says to myself. "Well, well, things is looking up!"

"So I helps him on with his overcoat and bows him out most polite. I hands the half a dollar across the desk and the boss jingles it on the counter. 'Phony,' he says, 'and you'll have to make good.'"

"Wouldn't that give you a headache? The guy makes me pay for his feed and then cheats me out of the biggest tip I'd got in a week. But never mind, I'll shake it all right. The first half-souse that comes in here for a meal and hands me a bill, out he goes with a phony half dollar in his pants."

Wanted Sport.

Some years ago Jude's was a noted concert hall in Dublin, and late in the evening the fun was generally fast and furious.

A young Englishman, bent on seeing life, went there one evening, but expressed himself disappointed with the slowness of the place to a Hibernian friend he met there.

"Would you really like to see a row?" said Pat.

"Yes," said the Englishman.

Pat filled a tumbler with cold water and threw it across the table into his face, saying: "Now hit the man next to you, and we'll have some grand sport."

Cleaner Streets for Berlin.

Any improvement in the methods of street cleaning is a step in the interests of public health, and is therefore of importance to all who are compelled to spend their days in the big cities. A hearty welcome is therefore assured to the new motor cleaner which has just made its appearance in the streets of Berlin. The machine has powerful water jets in front and under its center, while at the back is fitted a rotary brush. As the car proceeds the street is flushed and brushed, being left clean and comparatively dry when it has passed through.—London Graphic.

No Argument Coming on That.

The American Hebrew has this to say about one Samuel Findowit who brought his 80-year-old father from Europe in the steerage, while he came as second cabin passenger on the same steamer: "It is hardly to be supposed that so despicable a person can be sensitive to public ridicule, yet, both for his own deserts and a horrible example, he should be held up to the contempt of the community."

Difficulty Defined.

"Difficulty is only a word indicating the degree of strength requisite for accomplishing particular objects; it is a mere notice of the necessity of exertion.—Samuel Warren.

NEW ADDITION TO TOWN

Ccl. John D. Crawford, of Sedalia, is Interested Party.

There is soon to be a new addition to Steamboat Springs, John D. Crawford, Ernest Campbell, James Kilgill, Grover Likes, Clay Shaw and C. H. Leckenby having last week completed the purchase of forty acres from Col. John D. Crawford, of Sedalia, Mo., lying immediately west of the Fairview addition, says the Steamboat Pilot. Col. Crawford retains an interest in the new addition. The price paid was $150 per acre.

As soon as practicable the land will be laid out into lots and work of grading streets and other improvements will begin. Lots will be sold at very reasonable prices, and as the ground is well located, close to the new depot and within a short distance of some of the most valuable springs, the Lithia spring and others, a rapid sale is assured. Lots will be placed in the hands of all the agents. A name for the new addition has not yet been agreed upon.

Turtle as Watch Dog.

There is a new use for turtles, though as yet it has not come into common use. A passenger recently arriving here from Savannah, Colombia, was accompanied by a turtle which appeared to be endowed with more human intelligence than the immigration bureau on Ellis island, where the man remained until he was shipped back to Colombia. The turtle appeared to hear and understand everything his master said, and at night slept on a mat outside the stateroom door, acting as watchdog. Those who know turtles well say that, while the shellfish may not be very active, it has a grip which equals that of a full-blooded bulldog.—Fishing Gazette.

SCHNECK FOUND GUILTY

KANSAN KILLED WIFE, SON AND DAUGHTER FOLLOWING SEPARATION.

TWO SISTERS SOB IN COURTROOM

Jury Out Two Hours and a Quarter—Only Three Ballots Taken—Prisoner Stoical—Mrs. Stewart Next.

Ottawa, Kas., April 24.—At the close of the longest criminal trial ever held in this county Frank Schneck was last evening found guilty of murder in the first degree, on charge of killing his wife at Centropolis. The conviction carries with it the establishment of Schneck's guilt of murdering his two children, a son, aged 9, and a daughter, aged 3, whose throats were cut at the same time as was the mother's.

The jury was out but two hours and a quarter, and only three ballots were taken. The first two ballots stood eleven to one for conviction as charged.

Schneck's two sisters, who have been here from Muskogee, Ok., and Westphalia, Kas., respectively, all through the trial, broke under the shock of the verdict, and their sobs almost drowned the proceedings of the court, as the last juror was polled and the prisoner was led, handcuffed, from the room.

Schneck himself received the verdict with dry eyes and with no other signs of nervousness than firm set lips and a noticeable redness about the eyelids. Owing to the time at which it was committed, before the repeal of the old law, Schneck will receive a sentence of death.

Mrs. Mollie Stewart, Schneck's co-defendant, demanded and secured a separate trial on the charge. When her case will be heard has not been determined.

Schneck's offense was the most atrocious crime ever committed in this county. His wife left him on account of his neglect and his attentions to Mrs. Stewart. The day after her removal to Centropolis her body and those of her two children were found where the victims had been murdered, in bed. The throats of all three had been cut. The state's theory was that Schneck and Mrs. Stewart drove to Centropolis and back and did the deed.

Yansie Telford Convicted.

Murphysboro, Ill., April 24.—The jury in the case of Yansie Telford, charged with the murder of Cash Shaw, which has been on trial in the circuit court here since Monday, returned a verdict yesterday finding the defendant guilty of murder and fixing the penalty at fourteen years in the penitentiary. Shaw was shot by Telford in a saloon owned by the latter the night of July 4, 1907.

THIS WAS "GOING SOME"

Young Gates Wins $20,000 in Less Than Thirty Minutes.

Reno, Nev., April 24.—Charles G. Gates, son of the millionaire New York speculator, won $20,000 in less than 30 minutes in the North on at Kawhide Wednesday night, within a few hours after his arrival in that booming new mining camp.

Eleven women standing on chairs witnessed the exciting game. "Tey" Rickard dealt the cards, and as he owns the house he took off the limit. Once Gates was nearly $100,000 to the bad.

PERSIAN SHAH'S NEW MASCOT.

Boy Takes Place of Black Cat as Luck-Bringer to Monarch.

This curious title has quite as curious a story, for it concerns the "mascot" of the late shah of Persia.

Nasr-ed-din was an intensely superstitious man and believed that his luck lay in his beautiful black Persian cat, which was a remarkably handsome cat in a land where cats are nearly all handsome. The shah never allowed the black cat to be away from him, and it was given in charge of one of his wives, Amin Agdas, who was styled "The Wife of the Cat."

When the shah went on his long shooting expeditions the Persian cat was put into a decorated basket and carried by a special attendant directly behind his master. Unluckily one day an accident occurred and the black cat came to an untimely end. The shah was in despair at the loss of his luck-bringer, but the clever "Wife of the Cat" exerted her influence and brought his nephew under the shah's notice, says Hunt Notes. The lad was sharp enough to make the most of an accident (planned by his aunt) and save the shah's life and the monarch was so pleased that he gave the boy the name of "The Cherished of the Sovereign" and installed the new luck-bringer.

COMMON ORIGIN OF ALL LIFE.

Biologists of To-day Now Are Inclined to That Belief.

Biologists having failed to prove any case of spontaneous generation, Prof. Svante Arrhenius is attracted by the idea that all life has had a common origin and has spread from the single source to many worlds. The discovery of the pressure of light has added probability to panspermia, which teaches that life germs are conveyed through interstellar space. At the railway speed 37 miles an hour, a body would occupy 150 years in going from the earth to Mars and seventy thousand million years in traversing the distance to the nearest fixed star, but with the pressure of radiation as motive power the journeys might be reduced to 20 days and nine thousand years respectively. Even these seem long intervals for germs and spores to survive the dryness, cold and light. Recent investigations indicate, however, that some germs are proof against any cold, that the action of light is oxidation and is absent in a vacuum, that the loss of vitality in the cold of space would be one thousand million times less rapid than at 50 degrees Fahrenheit, and that desiccation would be no greater in millions of years than in one day at 50 degrees. Hence it may be that interstellar space is traversed at enormous speed by living germs that develop life on reaching favorable planets.

mentioned and Deputy Revenue Collector J. S. Raine. They left this city and went to the North Carolina line, and there located a distillery alleged to have been owned and operated by "Uncle Sam" Burchfield. It was in the fastness of the mountain, and as the officers were just on the point of leaping from the roof into the little house Messrs. Blankenship and Sharp spied the bear trap, and crawled back.

They were both on the point of leaping down at the same time, and had they done so they would have been instantly caught in the trap. The trap is said to have been one of the largest ever seen in the mountains of East Tennessee.

Burchfield had escaped, but it is said that he will be arrested; but the officers in quest of him will look out in the future for man traps as well as bear traps.—Knoxville Sentinel.

Edward S. Averill has been selected as general manager of the concern. It is said the contract of the United States Express company with the St. Paul system will expire in about a year and that it will not be renewed.

The Missouri Pacific Sued.

John Schultz, owner of the John Schultz Feed company in St. Louis, yesterday sued the Missouri Pacific railroad in that city for $5208.21, alleging that the company had by rebates and drawbacks favored his competitors.

He alleged that the railroad charged him $2 a car for hauling his shipments from Howard's Station to his place of business, one-half mile distant. He alleged that none of his competitors paid this charge. Schultz listed 720 cars he had shipped between April 8, 1900, and December 29, 1906, and asked for damages of $2 per car, with interest.

Did Well Fishing.

TROUT STOPS ORGAN NOTES

Gets Into the Motor Feed Pipe, and Pumps Won't Work.

Bangor, Me., April 24.—This State Belt trout story is being told: When Organist Pritchard, of St. John's church, Bangor, tried to play the big pipe organ it was found that the water motor at the instrument refused to work.

Investigation revealed the cause, in the shape of a six-inch live trout stopping up the pipe.

After May 1 Daniel's famous lunch will be discontinued until next fall.

BOTH WHITE AND BLACK

SCHOOLS OF ALTON, ILLINOIS, NOT BE PERMITTED TO DISCRIMINATE.

LITIGATION OF 25 YEARS IS ENDED

Cities Not Entitled to Jury Trials in Manjus Proceedings—Drys Hope to Win the Fight in Chicago.

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—After a quarter of a century of litigation, the supreme court yesterday finally disposed of the famous Alton school case by the most drastic action in its history.

Disregarding the action of seven juries which refused to enforce the law against the separation of white and negro school children, the court took matters into its own hands, declared the Alton authorities were not entitled to trial by jury anyway, and gave judgment for negroes.

The anti-secession people are rejoicing over the decision, which gives them a new weapon with which to fight officers who refuse to enforce Sunday closing laws. They now declare they will win their battle in Chicago, regardless of the disagreeing juries in the courts in that city.

The litigation began twenty-five years ago when Alton established separate schools for negroes and Scott Bibb refused to send his children to them.

The late Senator John M. Palmer was chief counsel and he fought for the entry of negro children to regular schools until his death. Then State Senator John Brenholt took up the fight.

Seven times the supreme court sent the case back to the Alton court with instructions to enforce the law, but every jury called either disagreed or refused to give judgment.

In passing on the case for the last time the court scores the juries which have heard the evidence, declaring their action more dangerous than the utterances of "ignorant and vicious" persons who are opposed to all law.

Then it declares that in a mandamus proceedings to compel officials to enforce a state law, there is no such thing as an inherent right to trial by jury, although this is the practice in Illinois.

After getting to this point the court declares it will not again send the case back to Alton, but gives judgment on the evidence adduced before it.

LOCAL OPTION BLOCKED

The Lawrence County Court Refused to Call an Election.

Aurora, Mo., April 24.—The county judges of Lawrence county refused yesterday to call a local option election for the county outside of Aurora, which already has voted saloons out. The court held that Peirce City, over whose population much controversy has arisen, was a city of more than 2,500 inhabitants. The local option advocates probably will take legal steps to force the board to call an election.

X-RAY FINDS BABY'S NEEDLE

Embedded in Little Shoulder for Two Torturing Weeks.

Shenandoah, Pa., April 24.—John, the interesting golden-haired, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Dixon, has suffered torture the past two weeks by the swelling of the right shoulder joint.

Physicians were puzzled, and finally Dr. J. Pierce Roberts used the X-rays and discovered a needle an inch and a half long embedded in the child's shoulder. The doctor promptly extracted it and the child has recovered.

STOCKMEN SKIN RAILROAD

Load Cattle Hungry. Feed 'Em Salt Hay, Sell 'Em Full of Water.

Commissioner Prouty has just completed taking the evidence in the case of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' Association of Chicago, against the railroads, in which the former complains of the live stock rates from Iowa.

Attorneys for the railroads charged in reply to a statement that delayed shipments caused a great decrease in weight of cattle, that many of the shippers deliberately fed their stock salty hay in transit so that when they arrived at the stock yards they would drink enormous quantities of water and thereby add to their weight.

Attorney Lynde, for the Northwestern, charged that some of the shippers even complained of his company feeding and watering stock at Clinton, Iowa, upon the ground that it took off the keen edge of their thirst and prevented their drinking water upon arrival.

"They pay freight on the empty steer," complained one attorney, "and then fill him full of water upon arrival at Chicago and sell the water."

MONEY, $1000; JEWELS, $3500

Wife of Prominent Actor Robbed in Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., April 24.—Henry Kolker, leading man at the Shubert theater, went to a hotel for supper with his wife Wednesday night, and

Mrs. Kolker carried a handbag, in which was $1,000 and about $3,500 worth of jewelry, which she placed on the floor and forgot.

Half an hour later Mrs. Kolker looked for the bag, and, although a search was made, it could not be found.

The police were notified, and the empty purse was found in a negro waiter's room, but the suspect cannot be located.

TOOTHPICK CAUSED DEATH

Insurance Company is Instructed to Pay Accident Policy.

Topeka, Kan., April 24.—Charles Barnes, state insurance commissioner, this afternoon held that death from swallowing a toothpick entitles the heirs of an accident insurance policy to the insurance. H. S. Myers, of Arkansas City, swallowed a toothpick, it lacerated his throat and blood poisoning set up, causing his death.

He held an accident policy for $3,000, but the company held that swallowing a toothpick and the subsequent death was not an accident.

"I hold that it is," said Barnes to the company's agent, "and will insist upon the payment of the insurance." Barnes cited the pin case from Wyandotte county as authority. The supreme court held that dismemberment coming to a man from swallowing a pin entitled him to his accident insurance. The case was tried three times.

DEAD, WITH MONEY MISSING

Arkansas Capitalist May Have Been Murdered in Illinois.

Bloomington, Ill., April 24.—The police are investigating a possible murder mystery in which H. C. Bruner, a capitalist of Stuttgart, Ark., was the victim.

His dead body was found under a second story window of a resort here. His neck was broken, and his skull crushed. The sum of $400 that he was known to have had in his pocket is missing.

Left Leg is Amputated.

Sam B. Keele, who resides on a farm five miles southwest of Green Ridge, who fell with his team through a bridge four weeks ago and broke his left leg and was brought to Maywood hospital two weeks ago last Monday, had the limb amputated below the knee this afternoon, Doctors Yancey and Dunlap performing the work.

Mr. Keele rallied nicely from the operation and his condition is satisfactory.

IS SEDALIA TO LOSE IT?

BRINKERHOFF POSTAL VENDING PLANT NOW LOCATED HERE.

OMAHA, NEB., TO HAVE COMPANY

That City Will Be the Headquarters of Field Day—Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday—Program Monday on the Subject.

The Omaha Evening Bee of April 22 had the following of local interest, and the question will naturally be asked, is Sedalia to lose the Brinkerhoff plant, or is Omaha to have only a branch of the parent plant here? Here's the Bee article:

Prominent Omaha business and professional men have completed the organization of the Nebraska-Iowa Stamp Vending Co., a corporation which will have its principal headquarters in this city, but its operations will extend throughout eleven states and territories.

The corporation is organized under the laws of the state of Nebraska. Its capital stock is fixed at $300,000 in shares of a par value of $10 each. The purpose of the company, as set forth in its charter, is to operate the Brinkerhoff postage stamp vender and money changer in the states and territories of Nebraska, Iowa, Colorado, South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

It is a machine approximately the size of a large cash register, which automatically vends 2-cent postage stamps in quantities from one to forty-nine, at the option of the purchaser, and it also gives change in return for any coin from a nickel to a dollar, providing the coin is a good one, the machine rejecting foreign coins as well as slugs and counterfeits. Thus the interesting purchaser of postage stamps drops in his coin and the machine delivers him the number of stamps he desires and then computes and delivers whatever change may be due him.

For this service the machine always keeps one cent over and above the cost of the stamps on each transaction.

It is the intention of the company to retain control of these machines for all time, but to install them in drug stores, hotels and depots free of charge.

F. H. Brinkerhoff, the inventor of this machine, has returned from Washington, D. C., and exhibited the machine in the post office department building. This was private and for the benefit of the postoffice officials. The machine uses a special non-perforated postage stamp furnished by the government.

This machine also changes money, so that a customer may purchase, on demand, ninety-nine cents for a dollar, forty-nine cents for a half dollar and so on down.

The officers and directors of the corporation are as follows:

Directors—W. J. Burgess, capital ist; F. D. Brown, treasurer, U. P. railway; W. Randall, auditor, C. B. & Q. railway; Sherman Saunders, grain elevator operator; H. J. Sterling, auditor, U. P. railway; W. R. Homan, real estate; P. B. Myers, of Myers-Dillon Drug Co.; W. H. Osterberg, capitalist; M. E. Welch, of Equitable Realty and Trust Co.; W. S. King, chief engineer Union Stock Yards Co., South Omaha; J. B. Watkins, wholesale lumber company; A. V. Drescher, merchant tailor; Judge E. M. Bartlett, attorney; A. H. Fettes, mechanical engineer, U. P. railway; Charles L. Dundey, attorney; Dr. J. H. Tilden, Denver, Col.; F. H. Brinkerhoff, Sedalia, Mo.; P. P. Ahern, Wichita, Kan.

The directors elected the following officers: President, H. J. Sterling; vice president, W. S. King; secretary, Chas. L. Dundey; treasurer, J. B. Watkins; general counsel, Judge E. M. Bartlett.

LOCAL OPTION FAVORED

PASTORS OPPOSED PROHIBITION IN STATE MEETING IN ST. LOUIS.

THE TRUE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE

Rev. W. Hayes Topping Appeared at the Session of Presbytery and Asked That He Be Taken Back Into Church.

St. Louis, Mo., April 24.—The St. Louis presbytery, composed of 200 ministers and laymen representing churches in twelve counties in Missouri, at its spring session yesterday at the Kings Highway Presbyterian church, refused to adopt a resolution pledging its members to vote for prohibition in city and state.

After a heated debate, in which the Rev. Dr. S. J. Nicolls, formerly moderator of the general assembly, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, in St. Louis, went on record as opposed to "arbitrary prohibition" at this time, a substitute resolution favoring local option was passed instead of the original measure.

Theologians were thrown into a dilemma in the afternoon session, when a petition asking reinstatement into the presbytery from the Rev. W. Hayes Topping, whose sensational rejection of the Presbyterian faith and entry into the Baptist ministry, a year ago, was read.

Mr. Topping made a complete retraction of his convictions on immersion which caused him to leave the Presbyterian ministry at the last spring session, in 1907. He asked to be received again in any manner in which the presbytery should determine.

Following the reading of the temperance report, which was punctuated at intervals by applause, the Rev. Dr. W. T. Rodgers, of St. Louis, submitted this resolution, which was rejected:

"We now and here pledge ourselves to use our influence and votes to the overthrow of the liquor traffic and in favor of municipal, state and national prohibition."

Dr. Nicolls offered an amendment substituting local option, which finally was adopted. He declared that if he had the ballot in his hand which would give prohibition to the state of Missouri, he would not cast it at this time.

FLEET TO SAIL NORTH

Santa Barbara Will Be Next Stop of Battleships.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 24.—After a celebration that has surpassed anything heretofore known in this vicinity, the battleship fleet will resume its voyage northward tomorrow.

Santa Barbara will be the next stop and the festivities that have marked the stay of the fleet at San Diego and Los Angeles ports will be repeated on an elaborate scale by the enterprising citizens of that town.

While Santa Barbara is a comparatively small city, a large fund has been raised for the celebration and the numerous parades, sports and pastimes to be provided for the delectation of the sailors and visitors will be quite up to the standard set by other California cities.

ROYAL VISIT TO SWEDEN

Welcome for King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

Stockholm, April 24.—Preparations of elaborate character are being made for the reception of King Edward and Queen Alexandra on their coming visit to Scandinavia. Their majesties are expected to cross from Copenhagen by ferry and travel to this city tomorrow night, and the public welcome to Stockholm will be given Monday.

King Gustaf has ordered to be prepared for the visitors at the royal castle the special apartments, commanding attractive views and providing the acme of Swedish luxury and comfort. The king and queen will be received in state and given a splendid round of entertainments, which will be participated in by the social leaders of the kingdom. The Swedes will unite with the Danes and Norwegians in welcoming the British king and queen in the north. ## MANY SO-CALLED JOKES

THAT ARE PLAYED UPON COUPLES WHO ARE NEWLY MARRIED.

WHEN MAN WEDS, TROUBLES BEGIN

One Bride Drove Home to Find the Hallway Filled With Cradles and Perambulators—Other Remarkable "Jokes."

The latest feature of a wedding is a cordon of police reserves around the block in which it occurs. Hoboken set this fashion, but it is not likely to have an extended vogue, for the small hours of the morning were chosen for calling out the reserves, and this isn't a favorite time for officers of the law to assist at a wedding.

Not that they knew they were going to one. They responded to a call for burglars. For a while a section of Hoboken was thrown into as much excitement as though a wedding were proceeding in every house. People didn't array themselves in festive garments. They showed that disregard of conventionalities observable in people routed out in the wee sma' hours to aid in a burglar hunt. The most elaborately costumed wore bath robes and woolen slippers, and some of the women exhibited astonishing coiffures and carried gas lighters as the nearest thing to a shotgun.

Guests at the wedding ran about looking for a missing bride and bridegroom. The rest of the block deduced about twelve burglars, whom each hoped somebody else would find. A dozen people testified to hearing footsteps on the roofs. Wedding guests and police followed this clew from different directions. They met to discover that the newly wedded pair had escaped over the roofs of several houses (thoughtlessly awakening their occupants), descended through a corner house and fled in a cab, practical jokes having already monopolized their automobile, says the New York Tribune.

Few people find light enough to see a joke at 4 o'clock in the morning. The police hoped they'd see themselves attending another wedding. The neighbors vowed that everybody who married was a fool. The couple who had jumped into the automobile wished they hadn't. Either the chauffeur was deaf or he determined that having been hired to take a bride and bridegroom to New York, take them he would. At such an hour in the morning, and all things considered, the reasoned, it was natural that a young couple wouldn't know where they had intended to go. On the ferry boat was time for reflection and explanations. The prisoners feared that marriage might overtake them ere they could get from New York back to their peaceful homes in Hoboken, which fate permitted them to do.

Usually it is the bride or bridegroom, or both, who suffer at the hands of exuberant jokers at a wedding. Married couples assert that to old adage was ever more pointed than "when a man marries his troubles begin."

It isn't at all entertaining to young couples to be held forcibly while rice is poured down their collars. One bride recently fell into violent hysterics under such treatment. There has come to be a wholesome fear of bruised faces, if not more serious injuries, from misdirected old shoes thrown with utter disregard of the life and comfort of the one to whom old shoes are expected to bring good luck.

Whether the path of true love runs smoothly or not, it is certain that the path of the newly wedded is often a thorny one to travel until they are safely away from their friends. Rice throwing has degenerated from the merry casting of a few handfuls after a departing carriage to a rough and even dangerous sport. It was thrown so violently and in such quantities as one young couple started off recently that their terrified horses ran away, and a smashed-up carriage, an injured bridegroom and a dead bride were the results.

Fearing a similar fate, a friend of this bride, who was married soon afterward, determined to take the initial steps of her wedding journey upon a street car. On the day before the wedding hand baggage was sent to a hotel and stepladders arranged on the roofs of two houses on Riverside drive. Gay young people, with bags of rice and a plentiful supply of slippers, blocked every exit of the bride's home. Instead of descending the stairs, however, the bride threw down her bouquet.

The scramble for this subsided, but still no bride appeared. An eager examination among automobiles and carriages revealed no one missing. Then the house was searched. About this time the bride's maid informed somebody that she had attended her mistress and now master over the roofs, descended through a neighbor's house and seen the couple safely on a street car.

On Seventy-seventh street a few days ago a young couple escaped by way of a second-story balcony into an adjoining house, from which a carriage bore them to their steamer.

All brides and grooms are not so lucky. Every now and then appear harrowing accounts of rice and shoe throwing which have inflicted wounds and blindness upon the victims of this practice. One bride, who thought all danger was over, since every grain of rice carried by her friends had been thrown, put her head out of a car window to wave farewell. Hastily a young man scooped up a handful of rice and threw it at the pretty head. A shriek of pain as the train departed informed her friends that the bride had been hurt. Later they learned that a piece of glass, gathered from the platform unwittingly with the rice, had pierced her eye and ruined her honeymoon trip.

Almost every young couple knows how it feels to shed rice at every step in the first hotel or train they enter, and rage at the idiotic way in which people snicker at the sight of a little cereal. A few are confounded, upon opening a new umbrella or parasol in some public place after rice cropping days are over, to have a downpour of pearly grains descend on them.

A young bridegroom, who had neatly tucked his wisp of a bathing suit into a suit case for a brief stay at the seashore before continuing the honeymoon was greatly disconcerted, when ready to don it, by finding its every edge elaborately finished off with white lace flounces.

Another couple who sought the seashore picked out a room in a hotel from which they could make an unobserved exit for a dip in the sea before retiring. Their first exit was sufficiently unnoticed. But on their return they had to wait outside and listen to joyous peals of laughter proceeding from their room until a delegation thought fit to come and escort them—wet, shivering and unprepared for company—to view the decorations put up during their absence. Mottoes of cheer and advice adorned the walls, and pretty much all the necessities of a growing family, from feeding bottles to gowns had been presented by the liberal hotel guests.

Not desiring to put strangers to the trouble of providing entertainment for them, most couples seek to conceal the fact that they are newly married. One pair played the part of a long-time married, unobtrusive couple to perfection until one morning the bridegroom observed outside their stateroom door his bride's shoes, with "Miss Blank" in bold gilt letters inside the tops. After that everybody could see that "Miss Blank" had just begun her honeymoon.

Newly wedded people grow to have a dread of the wedding decorations of the kind undertaken by the enthusiastic friends upon their carriages and automobiles. It has become the custom to drive to some sequestered part of Central park on the way to train or hotel, and park keepers who gather up bouquets, white satin ribbon, old shoes and even less ornamental objects the morning afterward think the happy pair might have had the thoughtfulness to have also left a bit of wedding cake and the wherewithal to drink their healths.

Recently at a Harlem wedding, guests covered the bride's carriage so completely with cast-off rubbers and shoes that when the young couple left the church they balked at entering it for the drive home. They thought an "old clo'" cart had been substituted for their carriage until they were hustled into it and at the house were greeted by 500 cheering people who had hastened there to assist them to alight.

Trunks of honeymooners have a queer way of turning up at hotels and stations decorated with tags and white ribbons, such as no express company ever provides. A couple who fancied they had effected a secret departure a few days ago were astonished to find at the door of their room in a prominent hotel, a big trunk decked out in a style to suit the most critical of bridal persecutors.

Other couples have entered hotels to find that a quantity of household paraphernalia of the kind used in kitchens and nurseries had preceded them.

One bride told of driving from the wedding to her newly furnished home to find the hallway literally blocked with cradles and perambulators. "I had them all stored in the attic," said she. "I thought they might come in useful."

Travelers have become accustomed to placards warning them to be kind to the newly married, and the latter usually provide extra baggage, lest the best man should, either accidentally or on purpose, send their trunks astray, as has sometimes happened, while nearly all young people endeavor to keep secret their destination for the honeymoon. A happy pair who succeeded admirably in all these plans were recently married in a big apartment house in New York. When the time came for their departure they could not be found, nor had any one seen them leave the building. Several days after that, as the bride's mother descended in an elevator, her daughter stepped into it from a lower floor. Unknown to family or friends, the young people had taken an apartment in the same house, and by using the stairs for exit and entrance instead of the elevator had escaped observation for a time at least.

FACE WON'T GROW HAIR

Man's Beard Flourishes Only on One Side.

Columbia, Mo., April 24.—A heavy beard on the right side of his face, while the left remains entirely barren of hirsute growth, is the inexplicable phenomenon of G. L. Collier, a retired Columbia photographer.

Collier has been in poor health for some time. Two weeks ago he visited a barber shop and was shaved except for his mustache and chin whiskers.

The left side of the mustache and chin whiskers is growing thinner and his left cheek is entirely without hair. Collier says he feels no unusual sensations in his face and his physical condition is the same as it was two weeks ago. His family physician and other medical experts have examined him, but can offer no explanation of the freak.

SEASON WILL CLOSE SEPTEMBER 19

If It Survives the Year It Is Said New Territory Will Be Invaded Next Summer and the Fur Will Fly.

New York, April 24.—Trouble in the form of a new outlaw organization will loom large on the baseball horizon tomorrow, when the new Union league opens its championship season.

The new league will furnish opposition to the National league in Brooklyn, to the American league in Washington and to both of the major leagues in Philadelphia. The Eastern league will find the outlaws a competitor in Baltimore.

The Union league opening tomorrow will find Philadelphia at Brooklyn, Baltimore at Elizabeth, Washington at Reading and Paterson at Wilmington.

The season will extend to Sept. 19, giving practically five months of playing. Some fast players have been signed by the various clubs and there is every prospect that the outlaws will draw big crowds to their games and may seriously affect the attendance of other leagues in some of the cities.

Overtures have already been made to some of the best players in the big leagues, and, with a successful season for the new organization, there may be serious defections in the ranks of the major league players within a year or two.

If the Union league manages to live through the present season it is said that the promoters will invade New York with a club in the Bronx and will also put a club in Providence or some other New England city.

An attempt will also be made to induce many of the major league players to jump the reserve rule next fall, which means that a red hot baseball war will result.

Richmond and Norfolk have also, it is said, been considered for next year, and if clubs should be placed in these cities it would probably result in the disruption of the Virginia league.

THESE PEOPLE "ELOCUTE"

The New York State Association Meets at Ithaca.

Ithaca, N. Y., April 24.—With addresses of welcome by Mayor Newman and President Schurman, of Cornell university, the ninth annual convention of the New York State Association of Elocutionists was opened today at the Ithaca Conservatory of Music.

The sessions will last through tomorrow, the program including a series of papers on instruction and platform work by some of the leading elocutionists of the country.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures the gripple coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Arlington Pharmacy.

How Animals Doctor Themselves.

Man might often take from the lower animals a lesson as to the care of himself when ill. All sorts of animals suffering from fever eat little, lie quiet in dark, airy places, and drink quantities of water. When a dog loses his appetite he knows where to find chieftend—dog grass—which acts as a purgative and emetic. Sheep and cows when ill seek certain herbs. Any animal suffering from chronic rheumatism keeps as far as possible in the sun. If a chimpanzee be wounded he has been known to stop the bleeding by a plaster of chewed-up leaves and grass.

The Man With Dandruff.

KEELEY CURE FOR HENS

Fowls That Had Eaten Fermented Canned Cherries.

Kankakee, Ill., April 24.—A flock of fifty chickens belonging to a Kankakee fancier recently became intoxicated, exhibiting all the symptoms of a human "souse," and for a time it was thought that it would be necessary to send them to a sanitarium for a course of anti-boze treatment. Investigation resulted in the discovery that the fowls had eaten some fermented canned cherries that had been thrown into the yard.

Old-Time Fountain Pens.

It is a popular fallacy that fountain pens are quite a modern invention. As a matter of fact, an old work of reference published in 1795 contains an illustration of a fountain pen, the appearance of which is very much like those sold at the present time. Its construction, however, was somewhat elaborate and clumsy, the pen consisting of various pieces of metal, which had to be screwed and unscrewed before the pen could be used.—Tit-Bits.

BRYAN WON IN ILLINOIS

"PERSONAL LIBERTY" AND THE NEBRASKAN WERE THE "SLOGANS."

WERE ENDORSED BY DEMOCRACY

Unit Rule Was Adopted by State Convention—Eight Delegates at Large to the Democratic National Convention.

Springfield, Ill., April 24.—Illinois democracy yesterday adopted the unit rule and instructed its delegates to the national convention at Denver to vote for William J. Bryan and to "use all honorable means to secure his nomination."

After a hot fight in the resolutions committee, which was carried into the convention, the party adopted a platform plank declaring in favor of the greatest possible "personal liberty" to individuals, provided such liberty did not infringe upon the rights of other persons.

Instead of naming the usual four delegates and alternates at large to the national convention, it was decided to send eight, allowing each delegate half a vote. Two presidential electors at large were also selected.

The resolution endorsing Mr. Bryan was adopted with enthusiasm, and a flattering demonstration followed the action. For all that, however, it was not worded to the entire satisfaction of Mr. Bryan's most zealous supporters, and in the last few minutes of the convention Judge Owen P. Thompson, of Jacksonville, declaring that Bryan had been "sold out," demanded that a stronger resolution be passed.

He desired to have the instructions so worded that Illinois would be bound to support Bryan as long as his name was before the convention. His effort was made in the last few minutes of the convention and it met with the usual fate of new business that is sprung upon hot, weary, hungry and thirsty delegates, who are anxious to catch trains for their homes. It was swiftly and overwhelmingly defeated.

The convention, however, showed sincere enthusiasm for Mr. Bryan. When his name was mentioned there was invariably great applause, and the reading of the resolution in his favor was greeted with cheers. The applause, it is true, came more from the delegates from other counties than Cook, and other cities than Chicago.

Roger C. Sullivan, who dominated the convention from first to last, did not applaud Bryan's name at any time, but Sullivan is not the kind of man that is given to applauding things, no matter how strong his approval may be. While the demonstration was in progress after the reading of the Bryan resolution he arose and stood until the cheers subsided and then resumed his seat.

The following eight delegates at large to the Denver convention were elected:

Roger C. Sullivan, Fred J. Kern, Carroll C. Boggs, Andrew J. Hunter, Samuel Alschuler, Harry M. Pindell, Edward F. Dunne and Redick M. Ridgely.

Picture Made by Lightning.

A log of mahogany which has been sawn through at Belfast, Ireland, was found to contain right through a very clearly defined "photograph" of a small deer and a large animal running. The "photograph" was probably transmitted by lightning during a storm and the pictures must have been taken a long time ago, as the tree, being four feet in diameter, is an exceedingly old one.

Every plank on the log right through shows the images clearly.

DR. LONG IS IMPENITENT

Was Branded by Mr. Roosevelt as a Nature Fakir.

Stamford, Conn., April 24.—Dr. William J. Long, author of "A Little Brother to the Bear" and other nature stories, which led President Roosevelt to brand him as a fakir, remains impenitent. He is said to be at work on a new book which will contain more incredible statements than any he has made in the past, but all of which, he says, he can prove.

Among Dr. Long's more recent discoveries are that bears often wait beside ant hills, making a noise like an ant in order to beguile the occupants; that crows indulge in sports resembling football and other man-contrived games, and that wolves find pleasure and recreation in sliding down snow-clad hills, using their tails as rudders.
